

---

❖ PEGGY LYNCH, Ed.D - Partner

Biographical Information

---

- Dr. Peggy Lynch served as Superintendent for San Dieguito Union High School District in San Diego County until April 2008.
- Dr. Lynch also served as Superintendent of the Brea Olinda Unified School District in North Orange County for seven years, part of her nearly 14 years serving as a superintendent.
- Dr. Lynch has held positions as Assistant Superintendent, Principal, Assistant Principal, Activities Director, and teacher. She has taught at California State University, Fullerton.
- Dr. Lynch has experience conducting executive searches since 2009, and has facilitated or assisted in the facilitation of more than 30 executive searches since that time. She also works with school districts on governance team development, superintendent evaluations, board self-evaluations, and executive level coaching.
- Dr. Lynch received her doctorate from the University of La Verne, her masters degree from California State University, Fullerton and her BA from Parsons College in Iowa.
- Dr. Lynch chaired the Association of California School Administrators (ACSA), Orange County and San Diego County Superintendents, was chair of the ACSA Superintendents' Symposium and ACSA's State Annual Conference. She is a member of Southern California Superintendents, Suburban School Superintendents and has presented at ACSA, AASA, and CALSA conferences.
- Dr. Lynch was active in community groups in all three districts during her 38-year career, including serving as the President of the Brea Rotary Club and as a board member for the Boys and Girls Club of Brea.
- Dr. Lynch has received recognition from various organizations, including Southern California Women in Educational Management, Stanford University School of Engineering and the PTA.
- Dr. Lynch is married and lives with her husband of more than 45 years in San Clemente, California.