

---

❖ PHIL QUON - Partner/CFO

Biographical Information

---

- Mr. Phil Quon served as superintendent for 19 years in the Bay Area – 13 years at Union School District in San José and the last six years in Cupertino Union School District.
- Mr. Quon also worked in Southern California as assistant superintendent of instructional services, Val Verde USD; director of secondary programs, Santa Ana USD; coordinator of media services, Montebello USD; and mathematics teacher, tennis coach, and activities coordinator, Irvine USD.
- Mr. Quon was instrumental in getting the Cupertino community to support the passage of two parcel taxes and one bond election (three elections in the span of four years).
- Mr. Quon served as president of the statewide Association of California School Administrators (ACSA) Superintendency Council, chair of the ACSA Superintendents' Symposium, and president of the California City School Superintendents.
- Mr. Quon also served on the American Association of School Administrators (AASA) Governing Board and on the California School Boards Association (CSBA) Annual Education Conference Planning Committee and Education Legal Alliance Advisory Group.
- Mr. Quon has been director of the ACSA Superintendents Academy as well as a presenter in the ACSA "Leading the Leaders" program for newly appointed superintendents in California.
- Mr. Quon has chaired numerous WASC accreditation teams in California and Hawaii. He was recently a member of the CTC Teaching Mathematics Advisory Panel and is a contributor to the National Journal Online Education Blog.
- Mr. Quon received his bachelors degree in mathematics from UCLA and his masters degree in education administration from California State University, Los Angeles.